DC Advisory advises Jones Oil on its sale to DCC Energy

Background

- Jones Oil Limited is a leading independently-owned Irish fuel business. Jones Oil operates in Ireland via a network of 16 depots and has been a highly trusted fuel brand in local communities since 1984
- DCC Energy Limited, a subsidiary of DCC plc, is a leader in sales, marketing and retailing of transport fuels, commercial fuels, heating oils and related products in Europe

Process

- DC Advisory ran a highly competitive process and received multiple indications of interest
- DC Advisory negotiated the key commercial terms of the transaction

Outcome

- In July 2021, Jones Oil was sold to DCC Energy
- This transaction highlights DC Advisory's extensive experience in the Energy sector

“DC Advisory's unrivalled experience in the energy sector was a key decision factor when selecting a partner to lead the sales process on our behalf. Their endeavour, professionalism and commitment to achieving a successful outcome was second to none.”
