Jono Peters biography

ABOUT

Jono is a Director at DC Advisory and Co-Head of its US Private Capital Markets practice, focused primarily on transaction execution and investor engagement.

Prior to DC Advisory, Jono held senior roles in the capital markets business at Union Square Advisors. While at Union Square Advisors, he specialized in structuring bespoke capital solutions for public and private companies. Prior to Union Square Advisors, he was a member of the Leveraged Finance Syndicate team at Citigroup, focused on structuring, pricing, and distributing flow credit into the Leveraged Finance markets as well as engaging on more esoteric situations from the Asset-Backed and Transitional Finance Team.

Previously, Jono served as an Artillery Officer in the United States Marine Corps, completing one combat tour in Helmand Province, Afghanistan.

Jono has a B.A. in Political Science from Hamilton College, and an M.B.A. from the University of Virginia School of Business.
