ABOUT

Parmela is part of the DC Advisory Infrastructure team based in London, and has 6+ years of investment banking experience, with a focus on financing.

Prior to joining DC Advisory, Parmela worked across a range of infrastructure and leveraged finance transactions at NatWest, where she supported origination, advisory, and execution of transactions with sponsor and corporate clients.

Parmela says: “It’s a privilege to be part of a market leading team at DC Advisory, where the depth of knowledge across the team is vast and solutions we execute are innovative and complex. Seeing the direct positive impact we make to our clients makes working at DC Advisory a rewarding and exciting experience”.
