ABOUT

Joel is part of our DC Advisory US team based in our Washington DC office, with more than 20 years' experience in the Cloud and Infrastructure Software space.

Prior to joining DC, Joel was a partner at Udata Advisors and has also held senior roles at technology-focused investment banking firms including: Alex. Brown & Sons, First Albany Corporation, H.C. Wainwright & Co. and Katalyst.

Client testimonial: "I've worked with Joel and Signal Hill for several years on multiple transactions. Joel and his team earn our business by a relentless commitment to results, creative thinking on how to maximize deal value and support throughout the process. Joel and the Signal Hill team have proven their ability to pull a great idea out of a confusing mass of options and opportunities. I have come to expect high-value support in every type of situation and look forward to continuing a successful relationship." Randy Jacobs, CEO, Idera
