Anthony Edwards biography

ABOUT

Anthony is part of our global Infrastructure team, leading the US Infrastructure M&A practice. Anthony has over 30 years' experience both as an equity principal at IFM Investors and in banking as an advisor and lender with the Royal Bank of Scotland.

His most recent experience was as a Managing Director in CIBC's Global Energy Infrastructure & Transition Investment Banking group, where he was responsible for originating, executing and providing senior leadership on a broad range of M&A assignments in North America and Latin America.

Throughout his career, Anthony has originated and executed across a wide range of sectors and across multiple geographies, including Europe, North America and Latin America, giving him a broad perspective of the global infrastructure market.
