DC Advisory advised New York Kids Club on the sale of a majority stake to Harbor Capital

DC US advised Chicago-based private equity firm New Harbor Capital has acquired a majority interest in New York Kids Club, a leading provider of premium early childhood enrichment, preschool, camps, parties and events. Headquartered in New York City, New York Kids Club operates 11 centers in the NYC area, serving 40,000 children per year with a proprietary curriculum of over 50 unique programs. The preschool program has been accredited by the National Association for the Education of Young Children. For additional information, visit www.nykidsclub.com.

Parents are increasingly recognizing that providing children with early childhood enrichment and preschool programming is closely linked with academic success in elementary school and beyond. New York Kids Club provides premier services through high-quality facilities and instructors, innovative and educational programming and a high-touch service model.
