Justin Holland biography

ABOUT

Justin is part of the DC Advisory London team with nearly 20 years' experience advising corporates, sponsors, banks, investors and other market counterparties through the balance sheet restructuring process.

Throughout his career, Justin has advised on some of the most complicated and precedent-setting restructuring, liability management and balance remediation processes across Europe, including Schefenacker, Mainsail II, Saur, Tirreno Power, Algeco Scotsman and CGG.

Justin says: "With our pan-European footprint; multi-jurisdictional, cross-functional expertise and highly technical team, we have the experience to provide stakeholders the right independent advice with integrity."
