DC Advisory advised Funai on the acquisition of Lexmark International

DC Advisory* and Daiwa Securities acted as exclusive financial advisors to Funai Electric Co., Ltd., a global manufacturer of consumer electronics, in its acquisition of Lexmark International, Inc.'s inkjet-related technology and assets for approximately $100 million. Inkjet-related technologies and assets include more than 1,500 U.S. and foreign-based patents, output and imaging technologies and a manufacturing location in the Philippines.

Through the transaction, Funai acquired the capabilities to develop, manufacture and sell inkjet hardware as well as inkjet supplies.
