DC Advisory advised LTS Education Systems on its sale to K12 Inc.

DC Advisory* is pleased to announce that its client, LTS Education Systems (LTS), has been acquired by K12 Inc. LTS is an education technology company that provides highly engaging and adaptive learning through personalized online instruction, assessments and games to over 1,500 schools and after-school sites and more than 350,000 PreK-11 students in the U.S. LTS' flagship program, Stride™, is an award-winning personalized, digital game-based learning solution for pre-K through high school students, with a curriculum aligned to the Common Core and local state standards. K12 Inc. is a technology-based education company and leading provider of proprietary curriculum and online school programs for students in pre-K through high school.

The K12 program is offered through K12 partner public schools in 33 states and the District of Columbia, and through school districts and public and private schools serving students in all 50 states and more than 100 countries.

Scott Wieler, Michael Kremen and the entire DC Advisory team have a well-deserved reputation for guiding education companies to the best possible outcome. We selected them because they fully understand the digital education landscape. More than being dealmakers, they are trusted advisors for entrepreneurs who helped us stay the course and find the right partner for our company.

Brian Shulman
CEO of LTS
