Sébastien Kammerman biography

ABOUT

Sébastien is part of the DC Advisory Infrastructure team based in Paris, with almost a decade of debt advisory and investment banking experience.

Prior to joining DC Advisory in 2019, Sebastien worked in the Infrastructure team at ING in London and for Riverstone's renewable energy investment platform.

Sébastien has a M.Sc. in Corporate Finance from SKEMA Business School.

Sébastien says: "After two years in the Infrastructure team in London, I joined the Paris office to help build the infrastructure debt advisory practice in France and replicate the success of our market-leading London platform. The Infrastructure debt market is complex and constantly evolving. It is exciting to be part of one of the most active advisory team across Europe, which is at the forefront of market developments, and to provide truly independent and leading advice to our clients."
