DC Advisory advised Little Sprouts, LLC on its sale to The Wicks Group

DC Advisory is pleased to announce that its client, Little Sprouts, has received an investment from The Wicks Group of Companies, a New York City-based private equity firm. Little Sprouts is a network of early education centers in and around greater Boston and southern New Hampshire, with 22 locations serving over 1,000 families.

“This partnership will allow us to continue providing families with award-winning early education,” said Mark Anderegg, CEO of Little Sprouts. “We are excited to embark on the next phase of our company’s growth.”

“We chose DC Advisory for its expertise and track record of success in the education field,” Mr. Anderegg continued. “Justin Balciunas and the DC Advisory team impressed us from start to finish, guiding us through a competitive process to a great result.”
