ABOUT

Ying is part of our DC Advisory China team based in Shanghai, and is one of the earliest pioneers of China cross-border M&A transactions, with 17 years' experience.

As one of the leading figures in the China-Japan cross-border market, Ying has advised many clients from different countries across a range of various industries, including manufacturing, healthcare and consumer products.

Ying says: "Cross-border M&A is more than a business deal, it's an artistic work for me. I quite enjoy the beauty of cultural conflict and fusion throughout the whole process."
