DC Advisory advised GPS Insight on its investment from Bregal Sagemount

DCS Advisory, a leading investment banking firm, acted as the exclusive financial advisor to its client, GPS Insight, on its growth equity investment from Bregal Sagemount.

GPS Insight is a leading provider of SaaS-based fleet management software to customers with fleets ranging from a few to several thousand vehicles across a diverse array of industries. Following several years of significant growth, GPS Insight plans to work in conjunction with Bregal Sagemount, a growth-focused private equity firm that provides capital and strategic assistance to market-leading companies, to further augment its solutions, expand its market reach, and drive substantial value for its customers.

The DCS Advisory team, led by Dave Dolan, Chris Hastings and Eddie Nie, were a tremendous value to GPS Insight, resulting in a successful and efficient process. Their deep understanding of both our industry and possible partners helped us to complete this effort in a very timely manner. We appreciate their professionalism, tireless effort, and the resulting outcome.

Founder and CEO of GPS Insight

We have now completed multiple transactions with Dave, Chris, Eddie and the transportation and supply chain team at DCS. What we like about working with their group is that they provide savvy and custom-tailored advice that fits the unique dynamics of each transaction. Further, their market knowledge and process guidance enables an | efficient transaction timeline.
