DC Advisory advised Broadway Technology on its growth investment from Long Ridge Equity Partners

DC Advisory* is pleased to announce that its client Broadway Technology, LLC, a leading provider of high-performance software for global financial institutions, announced a $42 million minority investment led by Long Ridge Equity Partners. The financing will accelerate Broadway's growth into new global markets and will allow the company to further expand its world-class product and service offering.

We are excited to partner with Long Ridge as we enter our next phase of growth. We chose Long Ridge as a partner due to their unparalleled expertise in capital markets technology and strong track record of investing in leading financial technology firms. Long Ridge's capital and strategic support will enable Broadway to accelerate our global expansion and continue our rapid growth.
