

Greg Ager

Managing Director

SECTORS

Technology & Software

LOCATION

Office details

Greg Ager biography

ABOUT

Greg is a Managing Director based in our Washington DC office, bringing with him 30 years of technology investment banking experience. For two decades, he has focused on the enterprise software and SaaS sectors, and was formerly a Partner at Signal Hill (which was acquired by DC Advisory in 2018).

Prior to joining DC, Greg held roles at Udata Advisors and Wachovia Securities (where he led East Coast Software). He also spent 10 years in San Francisco with Thomas Weisel Partners, NationsBanc Montgomery and Morgan Stanley.

Greg says: "My colleagues and I combine decades of relevant deal experience with an approach firmly grounded in teamwork and attention to detail, to deliver proven results for our clients. We take no mandate for granted."

Client testimonial: "Leveraging his deep knowledge of our sector, extensive transaction experience and flawless execution capabilities, Greg and his team delivered exactly what they promised and more." Gina Armada, CEO, MHC Software

For important information regarding testimonials, please see our disclaimer

COMPLETED TRANSACTIONS

DC Advisory advised MHC Software on its sale to Strattam Capital

DC Advisory advised Loftware on its sale to Riverside Partners

DC Advisory advised Prometheus Group on its minority recapitalisation with TA Associates

DC Advisory advised TrueCommerce on its sale to HighJump Software

DC Advisory advised QuickArrow on its sale to NetSuite
