

Matthew Coleman
Vice President

SECTORS

Business & Tech-Enabled
Services

LOCATION

Matthew Coleman

Matthew is based in New York and is part of our Business & Tech-Enabled Services team, bringing over eight years of investment banking experience across several subsectors within the Industrials sector. Matthew has extensive experience working with public, sponsor-backed and privately held companies, predominantly focusing on assisting clients with sell-side and buy-side M&A transactions.

Prior to joining DC Advisory, Matthew was a Vice President at Truist Securities and has also held various roles at KeyBanc Capital Markets and Jefferies.

Matthew earned both his BS and MBA from St. John's University.