

Gary Hancock
Managing Director

Gary Hancock biography

ABOUT

Gary is a Managing Director in our Industrials team, based in London.

Gary joined DC Advisory as an Associate in 2010. Over a decade with DC, he has advised on a number of high-profile deals across numerous Industrial sub-sectors, accruing particular expertise in building products.

He says: "The most interesting element of my role is the international nature of the Industrials sector. It allows our team to bring DC's global reach and relationships to the fore, to make a difference for our clients."

Client testimonial: "The DC team, led by Gary Hancock, provided invaluable guidance and outstanding client service throughout the process, and we wouldn't hesitate to work with them again." Will de Laszlo, Founding Partner, Agathos
