Vivek Chadha biography

ABOUT

Vivek is a Director in our Technology & Software and Media & Telecom team, based in London.

Vivek joined DC Advisory in 2013, previously completing an internship at Bank of America Merrill Lynch. He has over 10 years of investment banking experience, with a particular focus on the Software and Data & Information sectors.

Vivek has also spent a year on secondment at the DC Advisory office in San Francisco.

Vivek says: “My career at DC Advisory has been hugely rewarding so far. The dynamic and forward-thinking culture, combined with high integrity and talented colleagues, has afforded me unique responsibility and experiences to develop both professionally and personally. Above all, I feel privileged to have worked with past clients and excited for those to come.”
