ABOUT

Joe is part of our DC Advisory Manchester team, with over 10 years of investment banking experience, six of which with DC Advisory. Joe's core focus is on Business Services and Financial Services, primarily focusing on the infrastructure services, construction and wealth management sectors. He also covers clients in the North of the UK with DC being involved in some of the highest profile deals in the region. He is part of DC's PLC advisory team.

Previously Joe was at N+1 Singer, a mid-market corporate broker, focusing on public company M&A and fundraising.

Joe says: "Our deep sector knowledge combined with cerebral thought and pragmatic deal making allows us to focus on providing the right outcomes for our clients every time, which is key for them. Our true international presence is a key differentiator versus our peers. We have genuine global scale and relationships combined with local expertise."
