ABOUT

Muhammad is part of the DC Advisory UK Financial Services team and brings over three years' investment banking experience, and more than eight years' experience in the finance sector, to the firm.

Prior to joining DC Advisory, Muhammad spent eight years at Deloitte, and begun his career in Financial Services audit, managing the audit of several listed and private life insurance, lending, and wealth businesses. He then moved into Transaction Services, during which time he worked on over 15 Financial Services transactions for both corporate and private equity clients.

Muhammad is an ACA qualified Chartered Accountant, specializing in Financial Services, based out of our Manchester office.
