

DATE

November 17, 2013

SECTORS

Education

DEAL TYPE

M&A Advisory

DEAL LOCATIONS

DEAL TEAM

Justin Balciunas

Managing Director

DC Advisory advised Crestcom International on its sale to Progress Equity Partners

DC Advisory* is pleased to announce that its client, Crestcom International (“Crestcom”), a leading global provider of management training, has been acquired by Progress Equity Partners (“Progress Equity”), a private equity firm that invests in service-based businesses.

Crestcom provides clients with highly relevant and effective training modules that focus on the critical skills necessary for managers to succeed in any industry or geography.

Crestcom delivers its award-winning, proprietary content through innovative seminars that combine live instructor-facilitated simulations and video-based instruction featuring world-renowned faculty experts. The acquisition by Progress Equity will fuel expansion of Crestcom’s global network of more than 180 franchisees, which currently operates in more than 60 countries.

*Find out more about DC Advisory >