DC Advisory advised MHC Software on its sale to Strattam Capital

DC Advisory acted as the exclusive financial advisor to MHC Software (MHC), a portfolio company of O2 Investment Partners, on its sale to Strattam Capital (Strattam), a leading private equity firm. MHC will leverage Strattam's resources and expertise to continue to drive innovation and growth to enhance the value provided to its customers.

MHC is a leading provider of enterprise content automation and document management software solutions. MHC's software is utilised in many processes including the entire procure-to-pay cycle, and it seamlessly integrates with a wide range of ERP systems to ensure data integrity throughout the entire workflow process. Delivering system-agnostic solutions integrated with major ERP and HCM systems across various industries, MHC enables digital transformation within its customers' organisations.

We couldn't have chosen a better partner to work with throughout this transaction. Leveraging their deep knowledge of the enterprise software sector, transaction experience and flawless execution capabilities, the DC Advisory team delivered exactly what they promised and more.

Gina Armada
CEO of MHC Software

Greg Ager, Haider Arshad and the DC Advisory team demonstrated deep software expertise and executed a robust and thoughtful process. Their top notch team worked tirelessly to deliver an excellent outcome for all stakeholders. We couldn't be more pleased, and we look forward to continuing the relationship.
