Mark Rider

Mark is part of DC Advisory's UK team, bringing over 17 years' experience in Infrastructure M&A and debt financial modelling.

Previously, Mark spent 4 years at MUFG and 10 years at KPMG, including placements in Austin and Los Angeles.

Mark says: "Our team strives to offer the best infra financial models and analysis in the market. We want our insights to be a clear differentiator and getting client recognition of that is a strong motivator. This requires both 'tried and tested' approaches and fresh thinking on every transaction."
