ABOUT

Phillip is Co-Head of DC Advisory's Global Infrastructure Group based in London, with 18 years' investment banking experience.

Prior to joining DC, Phillip worked in the financing and advisory teams at both Royal Bank of Scotland and HSBC.

Phillip says: "DC Advisory is able to offer our clients a truly independent approach, which larger institutions are not able to provide. This unincumbered approach ensures we provide clients with the optimal solutions and thus the right advice. The opportunity to work alongside a highly professional team with an impressive deal flow and client base is what makes my role so exciting."
