ABOUT

Gemma joined DC Advisory UK's M&A team in 2011 and is based in the Manchester office.

She has 10 years' experience executing mid-market transactions across a diverse range of sectors.

More recently Gemma's role has focused on leading sponsor coverage and deal origination in the North West in order to support the growing UK execution team.

Gemma says, "I enjoy the diverse nature of my role working with a range of clients including private equity groups, founder owners, and corporates, operating across a range of sectors. I feel privileged to work with highly successful and interesting clients, and to be part of a talented team with a forward thinking and inclusive culture."
